Appositives vs Not Appositives

| | | | | |
|---|---|---|---|---|
| START | Sue, my sister has a cold. | My brother ate pickles. | Ann, my aunt, took Sue to lunch. | Martha came to visit. |

My dad is the mayor.

| Sue is the head gardener. | Tom is a sports fan. | Ann, the seamstress, made two new dresses. | Jack, the mechanic, couldn't fix my car. |
|---|---|---|---|

Tim fixed pancakes for us.

| Mark, the arranger, added drums to the song. | My dad, the mayor, is busy today. | Bill, the musician, plays the drums. | Sue is our babysitter. |
|---|---|---|---|

GO AHEAD 3 SPACES

| Sue, our aunt, played games with us. | My brother, the chef, ate pickles. | Sue, the head gardner, planted flowers. | Mark arranged the song to have drums. |
|---|---|---|---|

Ann took me to lunch.

| The mechanic fixed my car. | Martha, my aunt, came to visit. | Mike played a calypso beat on his guitar. | Tom, the chef, made pancakes. |
|---|---|---|---|

Sue has a cold.

| RETURN | Tom, the sportscaster, broadcast live. | Mike, the guitarist, played a calypso beat. | Ann made two new dresses. | Bill plays the drums. |
|---|---|---|---|---|

FIG. 63